If you were to choose the most memorable one?

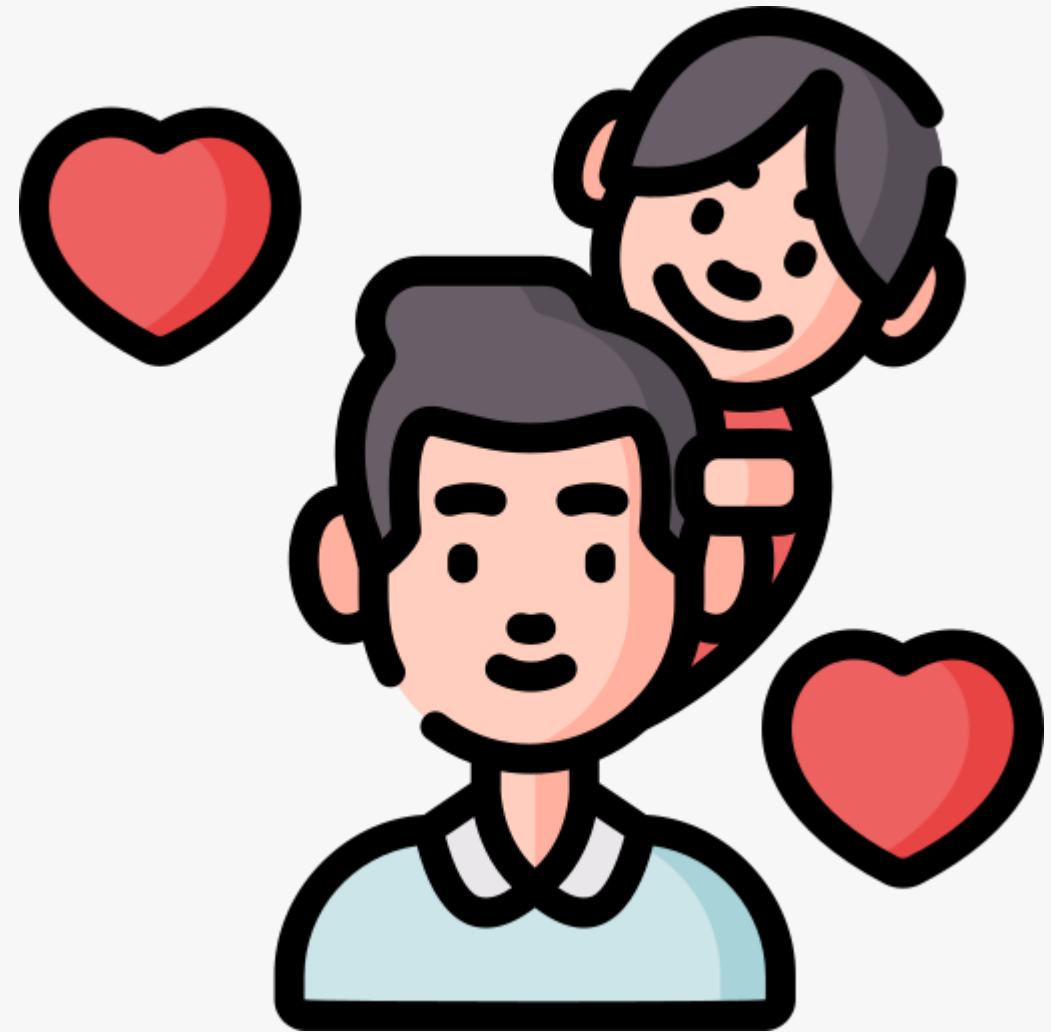

Hiking

- Pick up acorns while hiking
- Eating at the top of my home-made lunch box
- Let's try echoing
- Let's take a nap in the mountains

I'm sad that my time
with my dad has been reduced

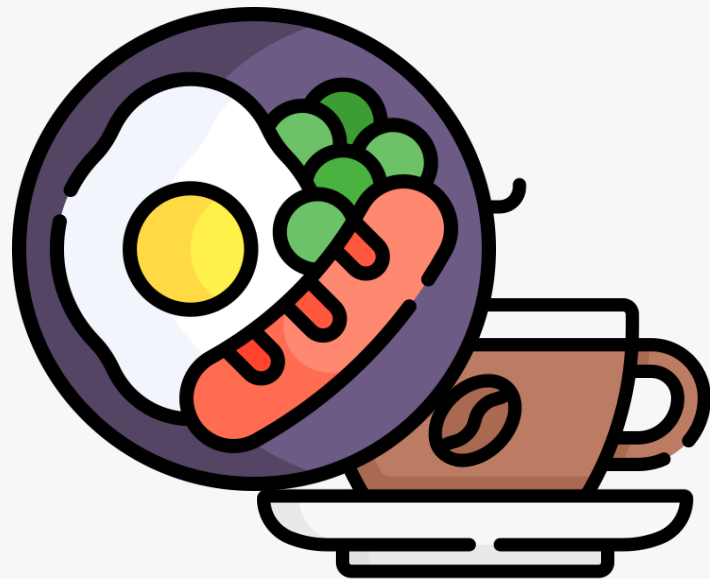

Don't be sad and act

What I've been doing with my dad lately

---

Eating a meal

Playing tennis

Singing

Will you go back to your childhood?

YES !!

Lastly, Nostalgia is to me

- Something precious that I really want to remember.
- Being a memory rather than an experience.
- What I want to go back and feel.

If there's anything that reminds me of this memory,
I think I'll definitely buy it.

People know that they can't go back.

Therefore, I want to leave the situation as an irreversible memory, if there is a perfume (nostalgia) to remember, people will also buy it.

Thank you for my listening
